

Craig Howe Selected as Deputy Administrator

On July 28, the City welcomed Craig Howe as the Deputy City Administrator/Finance Director. Craig has extensive experience with local government in Utah. He started his career working for Utah County and spent 10 years with Davis County government. Several years were spent with Ogden City as a Division Manager where his division budget was roughly equal to West Bountiful's General Fund budget. Most recently, Craig owned and operated consulting firms dedicated to serving local governments throughout the intermountain west.

Craig married his high school sweetheart Marilyn and they recently celebrated their 32nd anniversary. Marilyn is a Speech/Language Pathologist (SLP) who specializes in helping pre-school children. She works with special teams of medical experts to serve children through the Childrens' Special Health Services arm of the State Health Department. She also has a private practice with a waiting list of those who desire her services. The Howes have been blessed with three children and five grandchildren.

Craig came to West Bountiful understanding many of the challenges that we face. During his interview with the city council, he expressed that the diversity of responsibilities and challenges are "energizing" and provide opportunities to be engaged in meaningful service. Craig looks for the positive in people, organizations, and situations where difficulties arise. He seeks to creatively find solutions that are direct, simple and that work.

Legacy Parkway Opens Sept. 13

Aims to Reduce I-15 Traffic by 30%

Save the date for the Grand Opening of the brand new Legacy Parkway in southern Davis County on Saturday, September 13. Legacy Parkway will reduce traffic congestion on I-15 by as much as 30 percent.

As part of the opening day celebration, the new parkway plays host to the Hess Cancer Foundation Legacy Tour (5K, 10K, 20-mile bike). The event promises to be a once-in-a-lifetime celebration for all those involved as it raises money for families with children battling cancer. Be one of the first to experience the parkway.
